

Contents

- INTRODUCTION Educating English Learners in Mainstream Classrooms 1

- PART I Teaching Academic Subjects to English Learners

 - CHAPTER 1 Narrowing the Classroom Communication Gap for Academic Subjects 21
 - CHAPTER 2 Teaching Gero About American Symbols 57
Academic Vocabulary in Social Studies
 - CHAPTER 3 Teaching Edith About the Earth’s Rotation 69
Inquiry-Based Science and Language Development
 - CHAPTER 4 Teaching Tasir to Map Data 81
Project-Based Learning and the Use of Technology
 - CHAPTER 5 Teaching Edgar Algebra. 91
The Challenge of Word Problems in Math

- PART II Teaching Language Arts and Literacy to English Learners

 - CHAPTER 6 Targeted Language Arts and Literacy Instruction 105
 - CHAPTER 7 Teaching Gero to Write About “My Favorite Pet” 137
Language and Literacy in the Primary Grades
 - CHAPTER 8 Teaching Edith About Roots, Prefixes, and Suffixes 151
Language and Literacy in the Intermediate Grades
 - CHAPTER 9 Teaching Tasir to Write a Persuasive Argument 167
Language and Literacy in Middle School
 - CHAPTER 10 Teaching Edgar to Analyze a Text-Based Argument. 185
Language and Literacy in High School

- CONCLUSION A Call for Collaboration 201

- APPENDIX A The Academic Subjects Protocol. 217
Making Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment Accessible for English Learners
- APPENDIX B The Language Arts Protocol. 219
Scaffolding Instruction to Support English Learners’ Language and Literacy Skills
- APPENDIX C Resources 221
The English Learner Achievement and ESOL Tapestry Web Sites

- Notes. 223
- Acknowledgments 241
- About the Authors 243
- Index. 247