

CONTENTS

Foreword by Kevin Jennings	vii
Introduction	1
Beyond “Safe” Schools: Educating the Next Generation of LGBTQ Students
1 Bringing the Conversation into the Classroom	21
2 Transforming the Building	39
3 Turning Adversity into Activism	53
4 Tapping into Community Assets	67
5 Respecting the “T” in LGBTQ	81
6 Opening Up Spaces for Discussion	97
7 Making It Elementary	113
8 Where Do You Start?	133
Beginning with Core Values—but Not Ending There
Afterword	145
Beyond “Better”: Envisioning the Ideal School for LGBTQ Students

Appendix A	153
Artifacts of Practice
Syllabus for Sara Barber-Just's Course "LGBTQ Literature" at Amherst (MA) High School	153
Sample Assignment from Sara Barber-Just's Course "LGBTQ Literature" at Amherst (MA) High School	156
"Why Our Middle School Has a Gay-Straight Alliance," Donald F. Gately, EdD, Principal, Jericho (NY) Middle School	158
Farrington (HI) High School GSA 2014–2015 Calendar of Events	164
Los Angeles Unified School District Policy Bulletin, "Transgender Students—Ensuring Equity and Nondiscrimination"	167
Decatur (GA) High School Group Information Prescreening Form	177
"Responding to Some Concerns about Being LGBT-Inclusive," from Welcoming Schools: An Inclusive Approach to Addressing Family Diversity, Gender Stereotyping, and Name-Calling in K–5 Learning Environments	181
Avon (IN) Community School Corporation 2012 Strategic Plan	186
Appendix B	187
Online Resources
Notes	195
Acknowledgments	205
About the Author	207
Index	209